

Consent to Participate

Purpose of the study

The purpose of this study is to understand how consultants and trainees respond to different scenarios that they may encounter in the workplace. The study is being conducted by Professor Nisvan Erkal (University of Melbourne), Professor Lata Gangadharan (Monash University), Dr Sameen Kausar (Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital), Dr Boon Han Koh (University of Exeter), Dr Zainab Najim (Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital), and Dr Matthew Roe (Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital).

Participation and withdrawal

Participation in this study is completely voluntary and you are free to withdraw from this study at any time without prejudice or penalty. If you wish to withdraw, simply stop completing the task and close your browser. We will delete data for any participant who do not complete the study.

If you decide to take part in the study, you can withdraw your consent up to the point when the questionnaire is submitted. After submission, your data will be anonymised. As such, it will no longer be possible to identify and remove the specific data point generated by your participation.

What is involved?

We will present you with a series of decisions which may carry financial consequences to you. Participation in this study will take no longer than 20 minutes on average. Please note that the study will be conducted using Qualtrics. If you want to get to know more about Qualtrics' Data protection and privacy, please follow this link: <https://www.qualtrics.com/support/survey-platform/getting-started/data-protection-privacy>.

Upon completing the survey, you will receive an Amazon voucher worth 20 GBP. The value of the voucher may increase depending on your responses to the questions.

Note that to be eligible for the voucher payment, we will require you to provide your professional email address at the end of the survey. If you provide your email address, it will only be used for the purposes of administering the payment. Your email address will be deleted, and your responses will be anonymized once the survey is concluded. You can opt out of providing your email address, but this will mean you will not be eligible to receive the voucher payment.

Risks

Participation in this study is completely voluntary and you are free to withdraw from this study at any time without prejudice or penalty. If you wish to withdraw, simply stop completing the task and close your browser. We will delete data for any participant who do not complete the study.

If you decide to take part in the study, you can withdraw your consent up to the point when the questionnaire is submitted. After submission, your data will be anonymised. As such, it will no longer be possible to identify and remove the specific data point generated by your participation.

Is there any potential conflict of interest?

There is no conflict of interest involved with your participation in the study.

Confidentiality and security of data

All data collected in this study will be stored confidentially. All data will be fully anonymised at the conclusion of the study and cannot be linked to you. The data you provide will only be used for the specific research purposes of this study, i.e., the statistical analysis of your decisions. The anonymised data will be stored securely and may be shared with other researchers for scientific purposes.

Will I hear about the results of this project?

Once the research project is completed, the results may be presented at academic conferences and published in academic journals. If you wish to receive a copy of the published report, you can contact the project staff (Dr. Boon Han Koh, b.koh@exeter.ac.uk).

Ethical Review of this Research

This study has been reviewed by the University of Exeter Business School Research Ethics Committee (UoEBS-REC) (approval number 11250940). UoEBS-REC may be contacted at h.fornwagner@exeter.ac.uk.

You can also contact the University Research Ethics and Governance Team at cgr-reg@exeter.ac.uk or University Corporate Services, University of Exeter, Lafrowda House, St Germans Road, Exeter, EX4 6TJ, United Kingdom.

DECLARATION: By clicking the button below, you provide consent that you understand the information provided and agree to participate in this study. You also understand that your participation is voluntary, and you may withdraw at any time.